Process for Teaching and Learning

Lessons are taught through the CCLS Methodology with an interactive classroom program and material especially designed for our method and program. In the Grammar and Conversation classes, students do supervised grammar and writing exercises (workbook) based on the contents studied in class and practice conversation in group or in pairs on the topics and themes featured in the textbook lessons. In the EPG classes, students learn vocabulary generally used in the workplace and business-related situations using the grammar structures already studied.

Academic Progress and Grading Policy

Evaluation tools: Written exams (midterm and final) and an oral exam

Final score: Simple average of exam grades rounded up or down to the nearest full number

To maintain good academic standing and to progress to the next level, students must score sixty-five (65) points or higher in each exam. A limited number of exam retakes is allowed. For details, please see Grading Policy available at cclsnj.edu.
